

Call for Expression of Interest

FBF Associates in Digitalization/Digital Finance

14 November 2022

The Florence School of Banking and Finance (Robert Schuman Centre, European University Institute) is welcoming applications from experts professionally and/or scientifically active in the field of digitalization and digital finance to expand and strengthen its digital finance cluster.

Interested candidates should demonstrate a keen interest in engaging with the School on a part-time basis and be committed to the School's public good objective of fostering a common culture of regulation and supervision in the European Union.

We encourage applications from experts with the following background:

- Master's degree or higher
- At least five years of professional experience in an international context
- Teaching experience at bachelor/master/executive education level
- C2 proficiency in English

More specifically, we would welcome thematic expertise in one or more of the following areas:

- Fintech business models
- Blockchain and DLT basics
- DLT applications in the EU financial sector
- Crypto assets and CBDCs
- Regtech solutions
- Fundamentals of Suptech/Data structuring for Suptech/Suptech for market conduct supervision and consumer protection
- Qualitative and quantitative tools for data analytics
- Financial crime detection (KYC and ML)
- DLT Pilot Regime
- MiCA
- EU legislations and regulatory frameworks governing consumer protection
- InsurTech
- AI Act
- DMA
- PSD2/GDPR/Privacy (incl. ePrivacy Directive)

Although not a pre-requisite we particularly value profiles with previous experience in prudential supervision (banking/payments; insurance; financial markets).

Interested candidates should send their CV to Nicola.Bilotta@eui.eu at their earliest convenience. CVs will be reviewed on a rolling basis. Interested experts may be contacted by our team for further clarification or indeed for further details.

For any information, do not hesitate to contact Nicola.Bilotta@eui.eu.
